

ST. LOUIS WANTS 1912 CONVENTIONS OF BOTH PARTIES

LOUIS, Nov. 21.—St. Louis will make a vigorous effort to obtain the Republican and Democratic National Conventions of 1912.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch yesterday published an offer to give $10,000 to a fund by which one or both conventions should be brought to this city. It promised to pay $5,000 toward a fund which should bring the Republican Convention, the same to a fund which should get the Democratic Convention, or the whole $10,000 to a fund which should get one of the conventions if it shall be decided to concentrate the effort on one.

While the matter has been under consideration in a general way, the Post-Dispatch's offer is expected to have the effect of sharply arousing public attention and of starting a campaign. The Executive Committee of the Business Men's League will meet tomorrow to consider the raising of a fund to get one or both conventions.

As reasons to be presented to the Republican and Democratic National Committees, which will meet in Washington Dec. 12 and Jan. 8 respectively, the Post-Dispatch cited the city's central location, its ample hotel accommodations, its splendid collection of art and its political position as the metropolis of a doubtful State.

Every Dress, Suit and Coat in the Young Women's Salon Will Face a Substantial Reduction Tomorrow $85,000 Worth of the Latest and Most Correct Apparel for Misses And Small Women in This Clearance Sale Savings Average from $5.25 on a Dress to $40 on a Suit

Yes, the season's yet young and this merchandise is quite new—some of it has only been here a week or so. But that makes no difference, as it has been the policy of the Gimbel Stores for many years not to wait until the season is over to clear stocks, but to do it at the "wearable time."

The distinction of having done the largest business in young women's apparel in America is certainly due the House of Fashions this season. Yes, we had correct styles and apparel of quality—but there was another reason. We carried a tremendous stock and therefore had almost unlimited variety and a complete range of sizes at all times. So now that the season is beginning to wane, it is only natural that the ranks have been thinned—only one, two or three garments remain of some styles. On these the reductions will be the largest. But where sizes are still intact the saving will not be as large. However, it will be decidedly worth while—because the price of every garment in this Salon will be substantially lessened tomorrow.

These economies are of greater value than the mere dollars and cents signify, because savings may be enjoyed on apparel of distinction. These dresses, suits and coats are not only appropriately designed for young women of 14, 16, 18 and 20 years, but they represent the latest approved styles of Paris—as many are reproductions of imported models.

Young Women's Tailored Suits

Sturdy suits of cheviot, homespun and men's wear serge—fashioned in severely tailored styles for school and general utility wear. Velvet, corduroy, velveteen and broadcloth suits for matinee and afternoon wear. Beautifully trimmed with braid, satin, fringe and some with fur. Of course, there are severely tailored styles in these too. Navy blue, brown and black are the dominating colors, but every suit-shade of the season is in the collection. Tomorrow—$15, $16.50, $18.75, $22.50, $25, $28.50, $32.50, $37.50, $45, $50 and $75. Former prices, $22.50 to $115. Savings range from $7.50 to $40 on each suit.

Third Floor

Dresses for School, Street, Afternoon and Party Wear

Serge and Broadcloth Dresses in smart demi-tailored coat styles which young girls adore, because they are so convenient. Velvet, Satin, Crepe Meteor and Velveteen Dresses for afternoon, matinee and tea wear. Charming and simple but with the modishness that conveys a feeling of satisfaction to those young women who are so ambitious to be grown up. Evening and Party Frocks of dainty chiffons and crepe meteors are dreams of loveliness. Crystal beads and bugles, shadow laces and garlands of silk flowers are prominent among their ornamentations. Tomorrow $10, $12.50, $14.75, $16.50, $18.50, $22.50, $25, $27.50, $33.50, $35, $37.50, $40 and $47.50. Former prices were $15 to $85. Savings range from $5.00 to $37.50 on each dress.

Third Floor

Top Coats for General Utility and Dress Wear

Tweed Coats, and others of double-faced wools in reversible and one-exterior styles—every school girl needs just such a coat. And those who motor will probably need two. For afternoon and demi-dress wear, a coat of broadcloth or cheviot is a necessity. For dress—velvet, silk seal plush and velveteen coats are unrivaled. Some of these coats are trimmed with fur, that is, large collars and deep cuffs. In silk seal plush coats, we have both sealette (the best American-made plush) and also the genuine Lister silk seal plush—the finest made in England.

Tomorrow, $12, $15, $18.75, $20, $22.50, $25, $35 and $45; Former Prices, $18.75 to $70. Savings Range from $6.75 to $25 on Each Coat
